

History timeline

ANSWERS

Can you sort these missing events from the timeline and fill them in on the blank spaces below?

Swatch introduce a new time system for the internet called Beats.

Swiss consortium develop the first quartz wristwatch prototype, the Beta 21.

Benjamin Franklin first proposed daylight saving time.

The first digital watch “The pulsar” goes on sale.

Greeks use a water clock to measure time.

Date	Event
1500-1300BC	Sundials first used in Egypt.
400BC	Greeks use a water clock to measure time.
1657	Christian Huygens invents the pendulum clock.
1752	Britain accepts the gregorian calendar.
1784	Benjamin Franklin first proposed daylight saving time.
1927	Warren Marrison develops the first quartz clock.
1967	Swiss consortium develop the first quartz wristwatch prototype, the Beta 21.
1972	Atomic time replaces earth time as the new official time.
1972	The first digital watch “The pulsar” goes on sale.
1998	Swatch introduce a new time system for the internet called Beats.